Trixie Bennett, our senior from Waipukurau, New Zealand, presents Mr. Conrad with a pictorial study of her country at the National Honor Society induction in December.

DeVilbiss life for 1964-1965

To any DeVilbiss student, the 1964-1965 school year is remembered because of certain special happenings in his experience. In this book we wish to highlight the year at DeVilbiss—and in the world—to find out why it has been a special one for all of us.

The annual activities which go on in the school are important to this history because they constitute the core of DeVilbiss life. But what else made 1964-1965 an outstanding year?

The experience of having a foreign exchange student for the first time has enriched many of our lives. Those of us who were lucky enough to know Trixie Bennett realize the great value of the American Field Service, which was responsible for bringing her to DeVilbiss this year. From this program, American teenagers can learn about people in countries all over the world while these students gain information about the American way of life. These exchanges have also proved valuable in many other foreign relations projects, such as the Peace Corps.

Trixie, who is from New Zealand, has come in contact with hundreds of students this year. She has learned our ways and perhaps when she returns to New Zealand she will inspire more people there to support the Service. Those closest to Trixie are certain to feel a great loss when she returns to New Zealand. Her smiling, generous personality contributed much to this year's DeVilbiss life.

Another event of 1964-65, which may have touched DeVilbiss students less directly, was the World's Fair. To anyone who attended it, the grandeur of the Fair can be surpassed only by its theme, "Peace Through Understanding." This is a goal toward which each of us should strive. The Fair in New York City combined the efforts of nations all over the world, blending the most progressive ideas from each company, state, and country with history and legend. The very idea that all of these countries should cooperate on this project, with its theme of promoting peace, is something in which each of us can take pride.

In the year past, many people have worked for peace. The sole purpose of the United Nations is to help people exist together happily, without wars or fear or tyranny, recognizing that there are and always will be differences of opinion. There was strain and disunity during 1964-65 among the members of the United Nations. The opening sessions were delayed because of arguments. Situations in the various parts of the world resembled seething cauldrons in the Cold War. And this generation saw the passing of several great leaders who helped the cause of peace in years gone by. Our efforts as we enter adulthood must be to follow the patterns they set for us and, through such organizations as the United Nations, help people to conciliate or respect their differences.

1964-65 had other outstanding events. The Olympics, which were held in Tokyo, Japan, brought athletes from 94 nations of the world together to compete for individual and national honors. Men and women carried on a tradition which was started by the Greeks in 776 B.C. Every four years new people bring fame to themselves and honor to the countries they represent by participating in this competition. They embody the spirit of hard work and physical endurance which everyone, in any position or vocation, should have. People from Toledo and from neighboring cities and states went in the name of our country and came back with laurels. Once again, people met and participated together for the advancement of human relations.

Here in America, we demonstrated democracy by carrying out campaigns and elections for a president, senators, governors, and representatives. The founding fathers guaranteed every American this right to vote and elect the leaders of the nation. At DeVilbiss the students and faculty alike watched the progress of the presidential campaign and carried out their own mock election.

Although the events of the world may seem obscure today to the average DeVilbiss student, we have much to learn from these events. As each student takes his place in the future, he can reflect upon this year and measure his growth of knowledge, experience, and mind by the lessons he has learned in school and through his contacts with others. The only way to secure success in the future is through knowledge of the past and an awareness of the present.

... during routine reflections ...

Dick,
 I know you enjoyed Miss Smith
 & Mr. Kilcourse as much as I did so Good luck & God Bless (Because if he don't I don't know who will)

To a newcomer at DeVilbiss, the routine of our school life is not routine at all.

The daily confusion in the cafeteria

where friends can meet and discuss the latest news, the hubbub throughout the school

when the bell rings to announce the end of class, and the mass exodus which reoccurs every afternoon when the clock strikes 3:25.

These scenes are enacted thousands of times during the four years we spend at DeVilbiss.

Without them

we would be missing

an essential part of high school life;

with them

we have the basis for memories.

... during periods
of preparation ...

The foundation of success lies in the preparation.
One must prepare for every task he undertakes.
Behind every victory are the weeks of practice and personal sacrifice required to attain perfection.
In every class, students are acquiring skills and knowledge which they will need in the future.
The final achievement comes with hard work and toil, but the knowledge one gains in the preparation can mean the difference between later success and failure.

Dick
 lots of luck in

. . . during acts of accomplishment . . .

Accomplishment comes in many forms:
the winning score,
top honors on a national test, or the combination of talent and skill to make a useful object.
The hard work put into the preparation becomes worthwhile when the task is completed.
Nothing can equal the satisfaction received when the product of long tedious hours of labor is praised and appreciated.
Effort put forth
can bring these compliments, but the real essence of accomplishment comes with the growth of self.

. . . during moments of solitude . . .

In this day of hurry and pressure, solitude can be a treasured possession.
Sometimes it is the reprieve one gets when life seems too much to bear.
To some, solitude is loneliness:
 an insecurity of being by oneself.
It may mean being the victor in a race,
 studying for a test,
 or enjoying a special privilege.
There are times one has to be alone
to think, to learn, to grow.

No amount of study or literary knowledge can compensate for the lessons we learn from one another. When the books are pushed aside and the time for leisure takes over, high school students enjoy a most necessary part of their maturing process. Being a part of the spirited crowd as the team moves on to victory; serving, entertaining, and hosting adults; enjoying the company of school friends; or spending a few moments with a special friend—these are paths which guide each of us toward adulthood and give us unforgettable memories of our DeVilbiss days.

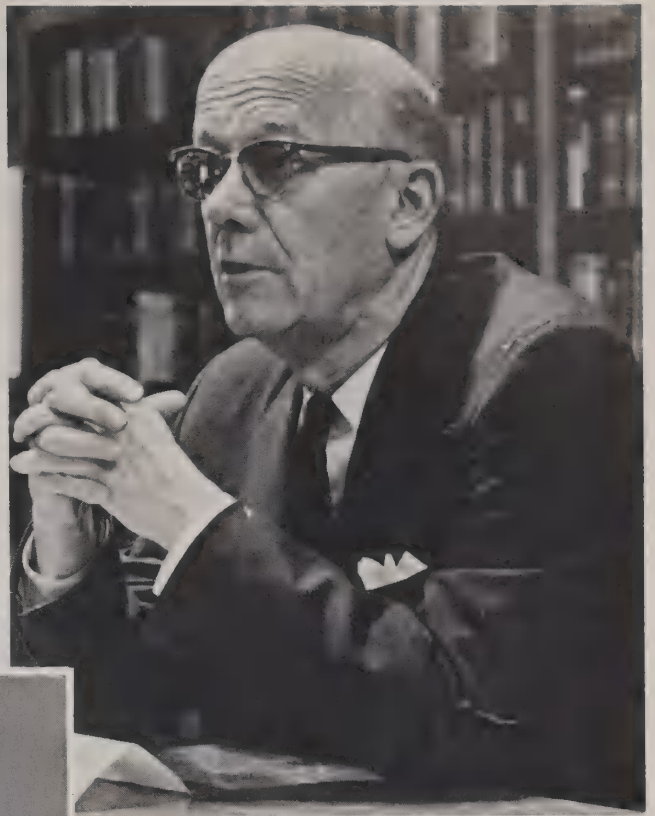

For 34 years DeVilbiss High School has been honored to have as a distinguished faculty member Mr. D. Norman Stalker. Beginning as an industrial arts teacher and advancing to department chairman, he has established an excellent reputation among his colleagues and students. For 28 years of his service to DeVilbiss, Mr. Stalker devoted a large portion of his time to advising the staffs of the Pot O' Gold. To those publications students who were able to know Mr. Stalker well, he became a close friend and a conscientious adviser. To honor Mr. Stalker and his years of devotion, the 1965 Pot O' Gold staff dedicates this yearbook to him.

A TRIBUTE

TO DEDICATION

On January 14, 1965 every member of the student body and the faculty of DeVilbiss lost a dear friend with the death of Mr. Russell Brown. For over 40 years in the field of education, 33 of those spent at DeVilbiss, Mr. Brown served as a friend and adviser to all who knew him. Students could feel free to come to him with questions, for he was never too busy to listen. Whenever a teacher had a problem, he could bring it to Mr. Brown knowing that it would receive prompt attention, for Russell Brown was a man of action. As a Spanish teacher, he had the ability to make the language alive and interesting, for he loved what he taught. It was to Mr. Brown, in the capacity of College Counselor, that many juniors and seniors came with their questions of "What should I do?" or "Where should I go?". Hundreds of students he advised who are now successfully established in college or in a job must give much credit to Russell Brown.

Mr. James Krupp, a member of the Mathematics Department, taught at DeVilbiss for eight of his fourteen years in the city system. His death, on February 25, 1965, was noted at DeVilbiss by the reading of the following poem:

*This was Jim Krupp—
Old enough to have known life
And its responsibilities;
Old enough to have touched the lives
Of hundreds of boys and girls
Through his coaching and his teaching.
But young—too young—
For there was no time
To see his children grow to maturity;
No time
To reach the peak of his profession.
He had taught a relatively short time—
Perhaps a third of the years
He had dreamed of teaching.
Yet he has left us a legacy—
To do well what's given us to do
And to do it now.*

—Olive McHugh

were the years of the New York World's Fair, held in Flushing Meadow, New York. Divided into five areas—Industrial, International, Federal and State, Transportation, and Amusement—the vast Fair included 150 different pavilions to entertain and educate its visitors.

The theme of the Fair was "Peace Through Understanding." Main displays of the theme were at The Vatican Pavilion, with Michaelangelo's "Pieta"; and the Unisphere, denoting the oneness of our world. The latter exhibit, the largest stainless-steel structure ever built, was located near the center of the Fair and served as its symbol. Also, the Pepsi-Cola—UNICEF Small World exhibit provided a boat ride past Walt Disney-animated dolls, dressed in native costumes, who sang, danced, and played musical instruments. An outstanding representative of the other exhibits which accented the theme was the Johnson's Wax movie "To Be Alive," which pictured the common humanity of peoples around the world.

Industries and countries alike advertised their goods, and brought about a better understanding of their products and their people. Major industrial exhibits included Ford, General Motors, Chrysler, General Electric, DuPont, International Business Machines, and the Bell System. Many of these gave their visitors a preview of life in the future.

The largest of the international pavilions was that of Belgium, which contained a copy of an 1800's Flemish village. The Swiss advertised their Alps and provided diversion with their Sky Ride, which gave one of the best views of the Fair. The African Pavilion, representing twenty-four countries, and those of Austria, Lebanon, and Spain were also among the most distinctive. Most countries attempted to aid understanding of their lands by using architecture that would be representative of native buildings and by serving the national cuisine at their restaurants.

The Fair was opened April 22, 1964, and was scheduled to close in October, 1965, after being visited by approximately sixty million people. Some of these people were DeVilbiss students and their families, who visited during vacations, or students who came on school-sponsored trips to New York, which were also attracted to the Fair. In October, 1964, when the Pot O' Gold staff was in New York for a journalism conference, its delegates joined the crowds. 229 seniors, on the senior trip in April, 1965, spent two days roaming through the exhibits.

Other events—Olympic trials, concerts at the new Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, and special art exhibits—were planned in conjunction with the Fair. Those who visited it, and even some who knew it only second-hand, gained new knowledge and understanding from both the Fair and these allied activities. We learn at DeVilbiss in many ways, too, through different kinds of lessons. The World's Fair was good evidence of the importance of our learning. It also showed how we can use the understanding we have developed at DeVilbiss to construct greater understanding from those less formal schools—like the Fair—we will attend the rest of our lives.

This year the DeVilbiss foreign language department has become the second in Toledo to acquire the language laboratories. They consist of five separate units, each with twenty-four head sets. The head gear itself is a transistor radio receiver with ear phones for listening, and a microphone for repeating. The teacher broadcasts by means of a wire around the ceiling. Called the Learning Loop, one of these wires is installed in each foreign language room. Accompanying the radio units are movies which utilize word-picture associations. These additions to classroom procedure are a part of the growing trend toward audio-visual education.

was an Olympic year, and the Olympic competition highlighted the athletic calendar. The IX Winter Games were held at Innsbruck, Austria, in early February, 1964. Terry McDermott of Essexville, Michigan, won the only United States gold medal with a victory in the men's 500-meter speed-skating event.

Just before the school year opened, Toledoan Chet Jastremski, who was to place third in the Olympics, lowered the world record for the 200-meter breast-stroke to 2:28.2.

September saw the greatest pair of pennant races in the history of baseball. With three days of the season remaining, three teams—New York, Chicago, and Baltimore—were in contention for the American League championship. Four National League teams—St. Louis, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, and San Francisco—were still hopeful. The World Series, between the Yankees and Cardinals, was consistent with the season which preceded it, going seven games before St. Louis triumphed.

Davis Cup matches were held in Cleveland, but the nearby location didn't prevent Australia, led by Roy Emerson, from regaining the trophy.

The XVIII Olympiad was the scene, at Tokyo from October 10-24, of competition between 5,500 athletes representing 94 nations. Many members of the DeVilbiss community followed the action, some of which was televised via the Telstar satellite. The United States, led by its swimmers and free-styler Don Schollander, who won four gold medals himself, had the most first-place winners, 36. DeVilbiss could feel entitled to a claim of 38, including the two collected by Trixie Bennett's countryman, distance-runner Peter Snell. During 1964-65, the New Zealander held the world record for the mile, 3:54.4.

Toledo wrestler Dick Wilson won no medal and our 1960 winner, boxer Wilbert McClure, had turned professional. But among the winners were hurdler Hayes Jones of Detroit and 5,000-meter runner Bob Schul of Athens, Ohio.

The football season saw two area teams achieve success. The Cleveland Browns shut out the Baltimore Colts to win the National Football League professional championship, spoiling the day for Toledoans Dick Szymanski and Jim Parker. And on January 1, 1965, the University of Michigan defeated Oregon State in the Rose Bowl game, with 1963 DeVilbiss graduate and starting halfback Jim Detwiler playing an important role for the Wolverines.

Michigan also boasted the country's best college basketball team. Professionally, the Boston Celtics remained incomparable, and Toledoan Howard Komives, the nation's leading college scorer in 1963-64, became a regular with the New York Knickerbockers.

Elsewhere, the Toledo Mud Hens found a roost at the new Lucas County Recreation Center. The New York Mets, a comedy pavilion at the World's Fair, set an attendance record for last-place baseball teams. Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston almost fought for the heavyweight championship.

But the main thing for a sports fan in 1964-65 was the Olympic Games. Reading about them or seeing the films, he felt strangely excited by the virtuosity of the performers, the spectacle of the pageantry, and the hope born of the Olympic spirit.

1964 DEVILBISS

In this, Mr. Booth's first year as head coach, the DeVilbiss Varsity Football squad, the mighty Tigers, responded to his fine mentoring with hard-fought dedicated play. This enthusiasm led to a very successful season. The year, which began with double practices in August and continued until mid-November, was a lot of work and extended effort, but Mr. Booth met the challenge of the job in good fashion.

This year's Tigers opened their season with a surprisingly easy victory over the Rogers Rams, later to be crowned champions of the Great Lakes League.

Next to fall before the mighty Tigers were the Knights of St. Francis. The highlight of this game, which was dominated by defensive play, was a 78-yard gallop by John Ulmer.

This set the stage for our game with Macomber, which was destined to be the showdown for the City League title. Macomber's great size advantage and determined play was sufficient to triumph and to pave their way to the city title.

Our next and last loss came at the hands of the Scott Bulldogs, by a narrow margin of a field goal. This game was marred by frequent fumbles which proved to be the Tiger downfall.

The Homecoming win over Start was sparked by the fine running of Bob Wert. His three electrifying runs left the Spartans defenseless. His 51-yard charge, with one second remaining in the first half, broke Start's spirit, and eased the pressure on our Tigers.

DeVilbiss continued its winning ways against Woodward. Woodward elected to kick its extra point after their touchdown, while John Ulmer tallied the optional run after Bob Wert's pass from Mike Muhn, our lone touchdown. This combination provided us with the narrow margin needed for victory.

DeVilbiss ran up its highest offensive output over Bowsher. Many of our boys scored in this surprisingly easy victory over the Rebels.

Libbey was next to fall to the Tiger eleven. In this game Lester Lewis confused the Cowboy defense with combinations of passes and bootlegs around the end. These factors helped us to avenge our last year's loss.

The final game of our successful season was also a victory. The mighty Tigers traveled to Cuyahoga Falls to spoil the homecoming of Cuyahoga's Black Tigers. Bob Wert executed the longest play of the year, lugging the mail across 83 yards. This ended the season on a happy note, as many of our varsity boys tallied points.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

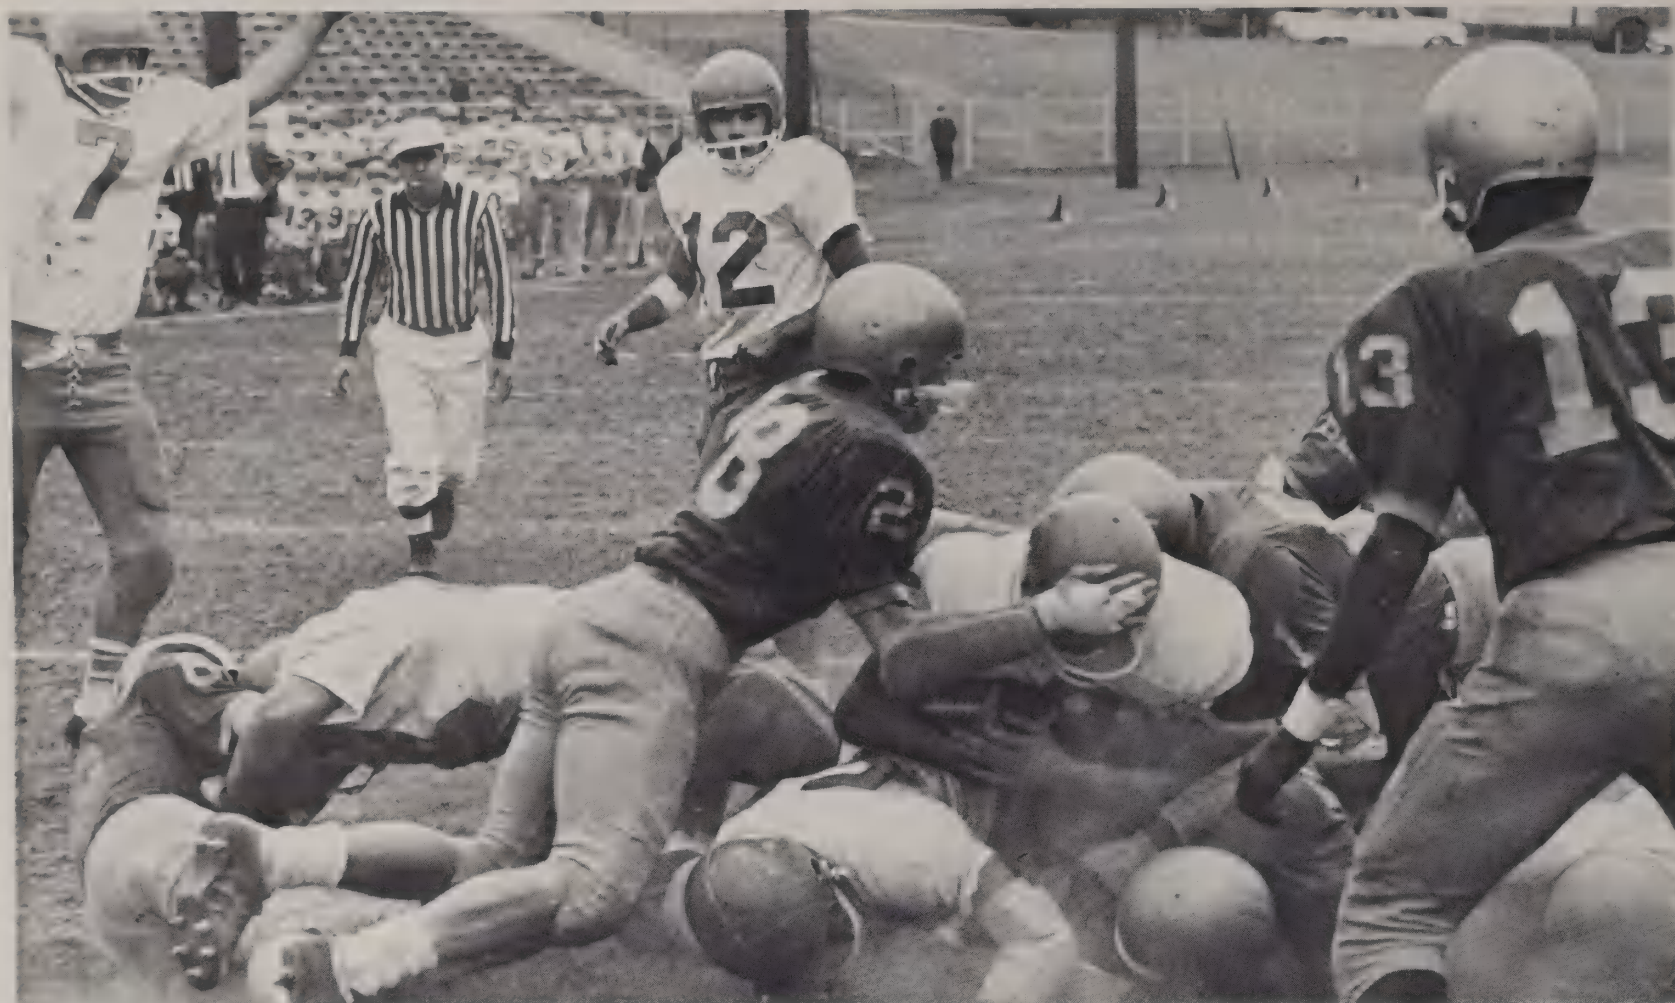

Co-captains Jay Rubinstein and John Ulmer, along with Bob Wert, won laurels for themselves and DeVilbiss by being selected to the All-City first team. Second team selections from DeVilbiss included Jim Holtcamp, Gale Spewick, Dave Upton, and Ronnie Adams. Fourteen other members of the DeVilbiss Varsity received honorable mention in the city.

1964 JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

This year's edition of the DeVilbiss Junior Varsity fought through its season to a very respectable 5-3 mark. The team, comprised almost entirely of sophomores, improved the record of last year's Lightweights. This gives new hopes for a successful season for the Varsity next year, as some of these boys will become regulars or give depth to the bench. The team's leading scorer was fullback Paul Ellinger, of whom much is expected in future years here at DeVilbiss. Signal caller and offensive standout was quarterback Dick Christal. Stalwarts of the defensive unit included linebacker Eliot Bergman, defensive halfback Ron Lada, and Tom Rerucha on the line.

1964 FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

The 1964 Freshmen football team compiled the finest record in recent seasons by our football yearlings. Under the tutoring of first-year coach Mr. Gene Hodulik, the Kittens went through their season with a fine mark of four wins, two losses, and one tie. Their victories came at the hands of Macomber, Central, Libbey, and Waite, while St. Francis battled them to a draw.

Co-captains for the year were Tom Dugan and Steve Hardy, who with Bob Langlois and Ron Covrett formed the nucleus of a fine squad. It is hoped that with experience these boys will blossom into fine varsity stars.

VARSIY BASKETBALL

The 1965 basketball season started slowly, due to numerous Tiger injuries. After downing Dearborn Edsel Ford in their opening game, the Tigers were defeated by Findlay at Findlay, and were edged by the later-crowned city-champions St. Francis at St. Francis. In the next game, the Tigers fought the highly-touted Dayton Roosevelt, a perennial basketball power, and came out on top. In this game Dave McClellan hit his season high of 40 points.

Libbey slapped the Tigers a humiliating defeat—one which they didn't forget. DeVilbiss bounced right back with Dave McClellan leading the way to a 33-point margin against Adrian. The Tigers ran off with their second straight game as McClellan and Eastop totaled 51 points, while helping to down the Bowsher Rebels. Next to fall were the Macomber Craftsmen in a single overtime win. McClellan scored six points in the overtime to total his third straight 30-point-or-over game. The Scott Bulldogs were downed by one bucket in a game that was close all the way. The Tigers battled back from a three-point half time deficit to overtake the upset-minded Bulldogs.

In the next Tiger win, Mike Eastop led the way with a 24-point output, while he and his fellow Bengals downed the Woodward quintet. The following game with Waite saw our Tigers once again down at half time, this time by six. But once more they came back like the seasoned champions they were and overhauled the Indians. Four Tigers—Clay, Eastop, McClellan, and Culver—hit double figures. Central bowed out in another tight game with Eastop leading the scoring. Tallying their eighth successive win, the Tiger five turned back west-side-rival Start. Eastop and McClellan totaled 45 points to lead the charge.

With the city championship in sight, the Tigers fell to a fine St. Francis team. Libbey, also with a championship shot, came back from a nine-point half-time margin to take an important win. Bowsher again was an easy victory as 11 Tigers hit the scoreboard. Macomber won in a squeaker, taking a six-point lead into the last quarter and holding on for a one-point victory. The tired Bengals took a two-point lead into the final frame, but the gruelling schedule showed on them as the fresh Rossford Bulldogs, Sectional Champions and Northern Lakes League co-champions, charged to an eight-point victory.

But here the season started all over. It was Libbey versus DeVilbiss in our first tournament contest. Libbey was favored because of their two previous victories, but the mighty Tigers rebounded as Mike Eastop and Dave McClellan led the scoring with 24 and 23 points respectively. As all teams, except the state champions, the varsity ended its season with a loss. This one was to the Waite Indians. Bottling up the inside, the Indians forced the game to the guards, and held McClellan and Eastop to 18 points.

Dave McClellan, averaging 23 points a game and 18 rebounds, was named to the first team All-District and chosen as its outstanding player. This is a great and well-deserved honor. Also, he led the balloting for the All City team with Mike Eastop being named to the second team and George Clay earning honorable mention.

The 1965 Junior Varsity basketball team, under the fine tutoring of Mr. Dale Pittman, started its season with an impressive victory over its counterpart from Dearborn Edsel Ford. Then after losing to the Junior Varsities from Findlay and St. Francis, the Kittens tangled with the Varsity of Spencer-Sharples, and walked off with an easy victory.

They were slowed down by a loss to Libbey, but came firing back with successive victories over Adrian, Bowsher, Macomber, Scott, and Woodward.

Central, St. Francis, and Waite added losses to the ledger, but again the Tigers came back with strong performances to repeat victories over Bowsher and Macomber, and added Rossford to the list of their victims.

Standouts for the team this year were 5' 10" guard Ron Lada, who led the team with 193 points in the 18-game schedule. Closely following with 192 points came 6' 2" forward Larry Lincoln. Other hopefuls were center Chuck Mostov, forward Tom Rerucha, and guard Tom Smolinski. With the help of these prospects the Varsity basketball future stands in sure and capable hands.

The 1964 Cross Country team turned in an unprecedented season this year going undefeated and untied. With this immaculate record they took the city crown. The long-winded Tigers trekked over the two-mile Jermain Park course to seven straight victories. The Cross Country coach, Bud Tapola, described this as the hardest-working group of boys that he has ever coached.

A large blow stunned the team when they were ruled out of the district tournament because of an infringement of the rules. This especially affected the senior boys, such as Jim Hanneken and Jim Farner, who were in an excellent position to rank high in the tournament. The lowest time by any Tiger over the two-mile course was posted by Jim—the Flying Dutchman—Hanneken.

With many underclassmen on the team, the future looks bright for DeVilbiss in this sport.

They're off! Jim Farner, Walt Osborn, and Dale Whitmore, start their two-mile jaunt.

Coach Bob English's crew compiled a fine season this year, even though they had a very slow start. After being downed in three of their first four matches, the grapplers made a "reversal" and were victorious in nine of their last ten matches. The finest record compiled in scheduled matches was the twelve wins-no losses-and two ties of co-captain Ron Guzman, of the 103-pound class. The next-best mark was posted in the 127-pound class by Tim Starner; of twelve wins, one loss, and one tie. 133-pound Jim Zollinger wrestled his way to a fine 11-2-1; Ron Adams, in the 145-pound class, finished at 11-3-0.

In the annual Worthington Tournament the Bengals fought to second place. Ron Guzman, Ron Adams, and Bill Keeseey attained first places in their respective weight classes. Seconds were taken by Jim Zollinger and Tim Starner; fourths, by Roger Albertson and Jay Rubenstein.

Ron Guzman, during the state championship meet, distinguished himself by taking second place in his weight class.

The Tennis team, perennial city champs, were edged out by St. Francis in last spring's competition. The team will be led into the fight by Randy Wertz, who last year finished second in the state singles tournament, and is a three-time All-City selection. With Randy back, and the balance of the squad much improved, DeVilbiss is likely to again be the home of the city champion team in tennis.

The 1965 Golf team, which is headed by last year's All-City selection Bob DeMuth, will, it is hoped, return the city championship banner back to the halls of DeVilbiss. It had resided here in every year until the St. Francis squad took it away in 1964. Mr. Kilcorse has compiled a strong team for the upcoming season and quest for the city championship.

The Bowling team, divided into the American and National league teams, returned two separate records. The Nationals fared better than their American brothers, finishing in second place only one-half game out of the first position, while the Americans ended the season in sixth place in their division. Captain Selly Lee headed the Nationals, followed by Jeff Kreinberg, Dan Duncan, Bob Spain, and Barry Swartzberg. The Americans were topped by Jim Lamarand, who was supported by Mark Brunswick, Jack Haffelder, Chuck Mostov, and Jim Stewart.

The 1965 Track Team, under the instruction of Mr. Booth, with the aid of Mr. Tapola, entered into its spring schedule after long and gruelling practice sessions of indoor running. With many of the stalwarts of last year's fine squad returning, and many young hopefuls, the team was talented and deep with reserves trying to better their last year's third-place finish in the city competition, and second-place finish in the Night Relays.

Returning stars were Bob Wert, winner in many matches of the low hurdles, high hurdles, high jump and broad jump; high-jumper Ronnie Adams; Keith Cook in the sprints; John Ulmer and Jay Rubenstein putting the shot; pole vaulters Rick Boggs and John Cartwright; All-City half-miler Dale Whitmore; Jim Hanneken and Jim Farner running the distances; and Sam Phillis in the 440. The squad was strong in its relay teams and in the distance events and had great depth in the field. The thinclads were in action after school in the stadium regularly, as the year progressed, in head-to-head matches against the other city track teams.

The 1964 DeVilbiss Varsity Baseball team is considered one of the finest squads in the history of DeVilbiss baseball. Led by All-City and All-State pitcher Geoff Zahn, and All-City third-baseman Tom Creekmore, the Mighty Tigers fought and captured the City Championship. Then they battled their way through the Sectional and District Tournaments to the finals, and in both emerged the victors. This earned the Kahler "nine" entrance to the elite club of teams, as one of Ohio's sixteen best high-school teams, and more importantly, earned them entrance to the Regionals of the State Championships. They bowed out in their first game to the later-crowned-State-Champion Lima Senior High School.

All this was accomplished with the aid of only four seniors. With most of the starting line-up from this fine team returning, Coach Kahler has the nucleus of a top-flight squad. The probable starters for this year will be: 1B-Dave McClellan; 2B-Dan Grana; SS-Dale Murphy; 3B-Mike Skaff; C-Chuck Stoner; LF-Terry Burns; CF-Jim Holtcamp; RF-Mike Eastop. Expected to share the pitching load are Tom Payne, Dale Murphy, Mike Eastop, and Jeff Ballmer.

INTRAMURALS

The intramural sports program, under the Athletic Commission directed by Rick Boggs, started this year's program with the Tug-O-War. The event was based on club competition. The two victors were Pericleans in the girls' division and Forum in the boys' division.

Football intramurals were scheduled next. Boys competed after school. Of the 14 teams entered, the 69ers, led by Woody Culver, and the Divots, headed by John Loeb, took the first and second places.

Students took to the boards with basketball intramurals during January. The unquestionable champions were the Divots who had placed so high in the football competition. Coming in second was the team led by Ron Adams, the Untouchables. The Divots illustrated their proficiency when they beat the varsity team from Spenser-Sharples High School.

The boys also played intramural volleyball, softball, and tennis.

Under the direction of Mrs. Sharpe, the girls competed among themselves and then sent the most proficient team in each sport to the city competition. The upperclass teams were victorious in all of their city games. They placed second in soccer, bowing only to Waite; first in basketball, winning against three other school teams; and first in volleyball against seven city-school teams. Freshmen girls played intramurals too.

The girls also participated in intramural badminton, baseball, and track.

Other club competition in the spring was in bowling, swimming, and volleyball.

1964-65

was a year that saw increasing strain on the proposition that the United Nations, as an organization to promote peace and social progress, could long endure. When its General Assembly was scheduled to convene in November, 1964, France, the U.S.S.R., and several smaller countries were more than two years in arrears in their payment of financial contributions to the United Nations. These failures were the result of refusals by the countries to pay for peace-keeping missions (in the Congo and Middle East) which they did not favor.

France and the Soviet Union contended that the cost of such peace-keeping missions should not be considered part of the general expenses of the U.N. They further argued that such operations were matters for the Security Council. But a World Court opinion overruled both objections, and the United States, which had kept the U.N. going with voluntary contributions, pointed to Article 19 of the U.N. charter: "A Member of the United Nations which is in arrears in the payment of its financial contributions to the Organization shall have no vote in the General Assembly if the amount of its arrears equals or exceeds the amount of the contributions due from it for the preceding two full years." Russia threatened to withdraw from the U.N. if Article 19 was invoked.

The November opening of the General Assembly was postponed, but no compromise between the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. could be effected. The Assembly met in December, operating under an agreement that no votes (and therefore no showdown) would be called for. Albania demanded a vote in February, but U.S. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson ended that crisis by permitting this procedural vote to go unchallenged. By spring, it looked as though the Assembly would recess and avoid dealing directly with the issue of non-payment until at least September, 1965.

Another issue that threatened the United Nations was U.S. involvement in the conflict in South Viet Nam. All our observers agreed that two of the greatest obstacles to success there were lack of political stability and lack of popular will to drive out the Communists. On August 5, President Johnson ordered an attack on North Viet Nam naval facilities in retaliation for PT boat raids on U.S. destroyers. On November 1, the Viet Cong attacked a U.S. air base with damaging guerilla mortar fire; later, a U.S. barracks was blown up. On March 6, 3,500 marines were sent into South Viet Nam to protect a U.S. airstrip.

In July, 1964, and March, 1965, U.S. Ranger spacecraft transmitted the first close-up pictures of the moon. On October 12, 1964, the U.S.S.R. orbited the first three-man space capsule. Four days later, Communist China exploded its first atomic bomb.

On October 14-15, Nikita Krushchev, premier and undisputed ruler of the Soviet Union for ten years, was deposed. Leonid Brezhnev and Aleksei Kosygin were his successors.

Former President Herbert Hoover died at the age of ninety October 20. American-born Nobel-Prize-poet T. S. Eliot died in his adopted England January 4, 1965. Winston S. Churchill, second honorary citizen of the United States, died January 24.

COMMISSION AND COUNCIL STEER

The club system at DeVilbiss is an intricate one. The clubs are divided into two categories, social service and special interest, according to their purpose. Each student is allowed to join a maximum of two clubs, one social service and one special interest, or two special interest. Special interest clubs are those clubs which emphasize one specific field such as fine arts, nursing, science and languages. Social service clubs, on the other hand, have as their purpose fostering friendships and service to the school and community.

The Club Presidents' Council was reorganized in 1962 to co-ordinate the various activities of those clubs. All club presidents are members and at meetings mutual problems are aired and ways of solving them are suggested. Projects and ideas are also offered to the group by the Social Service Commissioner, Carol Hedler, and Organizations

Commissioner, Pat Boyland.

Pat, assisted by the members of her commission, is also in charge of evaluating the clubs and seeing that they follow school regulations. Each commission member is assigned two clubs, which he visits at a meeting. An evaluation sheet is filled out after the meeting. The attendance, co-operation, projects, and attention are all checked. A club not following school procedures may lose its charter and school sponsorship.

These evaluation sheets, plus monthly reports turned in by club presidents, and presidential interviews are used by the commission to evaluate clubs for organizations awards presented during DeVilbiss Week. Awards are given to the best clubs in three fields: special interest, literary, and social service. An award is also given for the outstanding service project of the year.

CLUBS IN RIGHT DIRECTION

Hi-Y falls to Forum's "tug" in the Inter-Club Tug-o-War.

INTER-CLUB

Our DeVilbiss clubs have many joint activities to raise money, have fun, and promote their members' personal advancement. The annual Tug-o-War, in which Forum and Pericleans took first places, and the Inter-Club-Carnival, used to benefit the clubs and the American Field Service, are two excellent examples. Others are the Christmas Window Contest, in which club members display ingenuity and artistic abilities; the Inter-Club Bowling event to develop sportsmanship and club pride; and Club Day, when prospective new members find clubs to fit their tastes.

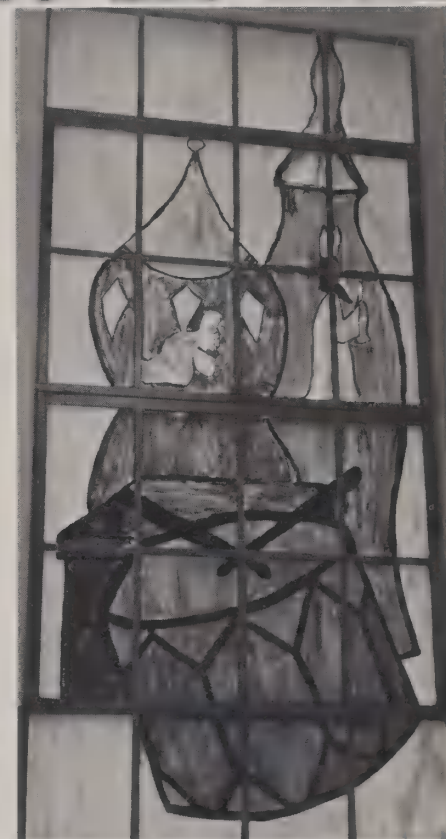

What could be at the other end?

ACTIVITIES

The year for a club officially opens with Club Week. Voting and induction are next on the agenda, with open and private dances and service projects soon to follow. The officers and adviser, together with the club members, strive to make every year better than the previous one. The culmination of the club's efforts comes with Organizations Day during DeVilbiss Week, when the best clubs receive recognition and trophies.

The "Little Brown Jug" pictured in the middle of this page is awarded to the winner of the Christmas Window Contest. The name of the club and the year is then painted on the jug as a permanent honor to the organization.

Sisco, "Sisters in Cooperation", is a social service club here at DeVilbiss. Mrs. Shirley Olmstead serves as the club's adviser. The forty-five girls have chosen the yellow rose as their flower, blue and yellow as their colors, and "Our banner of service is lifted to the sky" as their motto. This year Sisco organized a party for the Miami Children's Home and a dance, "A Knight With A Tiger", after a home basketball game.

QUILL AND DAGGER

Quill and Dagger is a city-wide boys' club designed to broaden the perspective of its members in the field of literature and to aid in their favorable adjustment to society. "Q.D.'s" listened to reports at their meetings and held a record hop with Thadevilleans this year. They also received second place for their efforts in the Inter-club tug-o-war. The twenty-six members are from all four classes and must maintain a C average.

Kiowa is a special interest club for girls whose main interests involve bowling and an attempt to promote good friendships. Besides bowling, the members of Kiowa have conducted service projects such as sponsoring visits to the Miami Childrens' Home. Organized in 1961, the thirty members have as their colors blue and white and meet on the second and fourth Tuesdays of every month in each of the members' homes. The name "Kiowa" was derived from an American Indian tribe.

GAVEL CLUB

A gavel is the symbol of a toastmaster, and the members of the DeVilbiss Chapter toast each other with speeches at their bi-monthly dinner meetings. Both extemporaneous and planned speeches are made, after which members respond with criticism to help the speaker. Mr. Frank Smith Jr., a member of Seaway Toastmasters, assists this division of Toastmasters International in attaining their goals of becoming better speakers.

A club unique to DeVilbiss is King of Clubs, a bridge-playing group, organized in 1961. The members meet on Wednesday nights at 7:30 for bridge parties after general business meetings. This year they also made a contribution to the American Field Service. The only requirements for joining are a C average and an interest in bridge.

The fourteen members of the Chess Club meet on Friday nights in various members' homes. As the name suggests, they center their interests on the intricate game of Chess and discuss the more difficult points of the game. With Creighton Miller as president, members of the Chess Club have entered tournaments and this year they placed second in the city for the Silver Knights Tourney.

Organized in 1955, the twenty-three members of Socialites Social Service club strive to promote school activities and friendship among its members. During 1964-65 they have undertaken such projects as making victory tags for athletic events, contributing to under-privileged families and Lott Day School, entertaining children at orphanages and adults at the Old Folks' Home, and offering their services to the Volunteer Bureau.

An Italian word meaning "sisters", Junior Sorelles is made up of girls from the junior class. They must be of upstanding character and possess a "C" average. The main function of the club is to promote an interest in fine arts, but members also undertake social and service projects. An entry in the Christmas Window Contest and donation of a Thanksgiving Basket were the major service projects. A turn-about dance highlighted Sorelles' social calendar.

SENIOR SORELLES

Participating in school affairs has been the major theme of the year for Senior Sorelles. These girls made spirit tags for many of the football and basketball games, entered the Christmas Window Contest, Inter-Club Carnival, and contributed to various other activities. Social projects consisted of a record hop, splash party, and turn-about featuring a movie preceeding a dance in a member's home. Sorelles also attended the Nutcracker Ballet and read literary works at their meetings.

FUTURE NURSES

Led by Marilyn Straub, president, and Miss Rehklau, the school nurse as adviser, the fourteen Future Nurses of DeVilbiss have concentrated this year on furthering their interest in future careers in nursing. Films on nursing are shown at their meetings, which are held in Miss Rehklau's office. The main project for Future Nurses this year has been visiting the State Hospital to help entertain patients. Some members also work in the nurse's office and are enrolled in the home nursing class.

FUTURE TEACHERS

The seventeen members of Future Teachers of America are closely linked by a common interest in teaching. At their meetings, which are sometimes held jointly with chapters in other schools, they often have guest speakers. This year members attended an educational workshop where they heard speakers discussing the different levels of teaching. Their service projects also reflected their interest in teaching: for example, they helped teachers after exams in cleaning out files, helped the office staff, and dusted shelves in the library.

EQUESTRIENNES

Equestriennes is a club for girls who are interested in horseback riding. They ride together every second and fourth Saturday at Douglas Meadows. At meetings, held every second and fourth Monday, they watch movies to improve their riding techniques. Their projects this year included a Christmas party at the Miami Children's Home where they gave the children presents, sang carols, and played games.

HI-Y

To create, maintain, and extend through the home, school, and community good standards of Christian character is the stated aim of Hi-Y. This year, supporting an orphan through the Christmas Children's Fund and collecting for U.N.I.C.E.F. have been two outstanding service projects. Hayrides, splash parties, tobogganing, and a trip to Cedar Point complete the year's activities.

DRAMATIC PLAYERS

Organized in 1960, the Dramatic Players are concerned with promoting an interest in dramatics at DeVilbiss. They give many programs throughout the year, such as this year's show for the Faculty Christmas Party. Planned by Beth Dettelbach, the program consisted of a skit and reading to the children. Mrs. Pownall and Miss Hodgson are the advisers when the club meets Monday afternoons, at 3:30. Although membership is limited to thirty, anyone with a C average and a desire for furthering himself in drama is eligible.

Pam Rich, George Alspach, President; Beth Dettelbach, Barb Krause, Richard LaCourse, and John Wohl perform for the Faculty Christmas Party.

SHARPS AND FLATS

Sharps and Flats is composed of twenty-eight music-minded students who either sing, play an instrument, or dance. Since their purpose is to promote music as a cultural and artistic means of self-expression, the members entertain at meetings each in his own particular field of music. Along with other musical projects such as attending various concerts, Sharps and Flats participated in several social and service projects. They have entertained at orphanages and hospitals and held their annual tea.

DEBUTANTES

Scrapbooks and cardboard shoes with laces used in teaching the tying of shoes occupied much of the Debutantes' time this year. These items were made for the young children at St. Anthony's Villa. Contributions to school affairs consisted of making signs for the Homecoming court's cars, giving a Christmas gift to a faculty child, and patronizing Night Relays. Mrs. Sprague and Miss DeWolfe guide the forty-seven members in fulfilling the club ideal: to join girls in literary fellowship.

TRI-D

This year the major project of Tri-D Social Service Club has been to adopt a cottage at Miami Children's Home. An Easter party, and donations of soap and toothpaste are two phases of this activity. These girls presented valentine cookies to the teachers, made spirit tags, and arranged Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets for other service projects. Social affairs included a hayride, Christmas caroling, and a Halloween party.

Supporting the Junior-Senior Play, DeViltries, and other area thespian events were the major activities of Les Femmes Theatrical Appreciation Club this year. These girls have also adopted a family that has seven children. They have taken the children to the circus, the Inter-Club Carnival, a Christmas party, and an Easter egg hunt. Helping plan and attending these events were the girls and their advisers, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Swindle. The first and third Mondays of every month have found Les Femmes at their meetings, amid reports on plays and movies, and making bulletin board displays for the library.

ALCHEMISTS

Fifteen students with an interest in chemistry have organized a chapter of the city-wide Alchemy club here at DeVilbiss. Their president, Jim Bolcsak, represented DeVilbiss at the "Youth Conference on the Atom" held in Chicago.

D'ARCY

Der Deutsche Verein, more commonly known as the German Club was founded in 1937. The formal name is taken from the dueling clubs in old Germany. The DeVilbiss chapter confines its warfare to making replicas of coats of arms. The fifteen members have studied or are in the process of studying German. This year they are led by president Dave Brown and advised by Mr. Werba.

The second and fourth Mondays of each month find the D'arcy girls and their advisers, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Beals, planning some of the many worthwhile projects of this special interest club. The name is derived from the initials of Division of American Red Cross Youth, D'arcy's national affiliate. The symbol, a red cross on a white field, is also that of the national organization. In working for the Red Cross the girls address envelopes, make such items as bibs and scrapbooks, and volunteer for other needed services. Among the service projects performed through the school was the donation of a Thanksgiving basket. D'arcy ended the year with a hayride for the girls and their friends.

THADEVILLEANS

Although it is primarily a sports club, 1965 has found Thadevilleans making place mats for Toledo Hospital and having bake-sales while supporting school games, going bowling and playing billiards. Reports on various sports and sporting activities are highlights of their Wednesday meetings. The girls always try to uphold their slogan "Be a Sport".

PAY-A-EL-SA

Pay-a-el-sa's motto, "May the hinges of our friendship never rust," provides the foundation for the many social and service projects experienced by its fifty-one members. Homecoming found "Pay" with both a float and a booth. Young Sin is the name of the Korean child which the girls co-sponsored with I-da-ka. Proceeds from a record hop and a rummage sale were used for such events as an open Christmas dance and the Alumnae Tea.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

The DeVilbiss Chapter of J.C.L. is comprised of twenty-five Latin students. Under the leadership of their adviser, Mrs. Boerner, they have undertaken such projects as sponsoring the annual Roman Banquet for all Latin students, a Halloween party, and a summer picnic. In serving the community, the J.C.L. sends groups of their members to the Friendly Center twice a week to entertain the children there. At meetings, discussions are presented on Roman Latin literature and various speakers display their Italian and Greek slides. Doug Densmore, president of the J.C.L., leads the re-organized group in further increasing their knowledge of Latin and of the ancient Romans.

To live up to this ideal was "Peries" major aim. The girls presented the philosophies of famous authors at their Thursday meetings, attended plays at Doerman Theater, and an art show at Lasalle's. Making bibs for the Larc Lane School and an Alumni Tea rounded out the year.

OMENA AURA

Since 1901, when it was organized, Omena Aura has done much to adhere to its motto, "Nothing is greater than friendship." The sale of mums for homecoming is an annual money-making activity. O.A. took young orphans from the Miami Children's Home to the zoo and donated gifts to some of the teenagers there. "Be-witched" was the theme of an open dance held on Halloween night.

Tawasi Social Service Club was organized in 1957 with the purpose of creating a sense of sisterhood among the girls and helping the school and community. During the past four years the proud Red and Gold have been honored as the "Best Social Service Club" at DeVilbiss. The most important service project of the forty girls has been the beginning of a scholarship memorial for Mr. Brown.

A visitor to a debate club meeting would find the membership in heated discussions as they practice the art of debate. This year they took first place in the Anthony Wayne Tournament and a second at Sylvania. Television debate also occupied much of their time. Team A lost to Anthony Wayne on the telecast of November 22, and later won a debate on the same topic.

Thomas A. DeVilbiss High School

Club Charter

THIS IS TO CERTIFY, that the organization known as _____ of De Vilbiss High School is hereby chartered by the Student Council under the regulations incorporated in the rules for organizations established by the Student Council.

President of the Council

Commissioner of Organizations

Director of Activities

Expiration date

DeVilbiss sponsors many clubs. In order that the school may have a measure of control in club activities, certain procedures are set up in accordance with the Board of Education on the methods of establishing a club. Each year an application for a charter must be filled out and given to the Organizations Commissioner. Many things such as a roster of members, a copy of the constitution or bylaws, and names of advisers are required. The president and advisors must sign an agreement with the Board that this will not be a Greek letter organization; nor will there be rushing, pledging, or initiation ceremonies of any type. Any club fulfilling these regulations will not be considered a high school fraternity or sorority, which are illegal in Ohio, and a charter, or permit, authorizing the organization will be issued. The Organizations Commission further checks on clubs by visiting them each semester to see that the clubs uphold their standards and are entitled to keep their charters.

was a Presidential-election year, and all the DeVilbiss community—not just the Orientation and American History students—followed the campaigning.

The first activity came in Republican primaries. In New Hampshire, voters surprised the professionals with a write-in campaign for Henry Cabot Lodge, then-Ambassador to South Viet Nam. New York Governor Nelson Rockefeller won the Oregon primary, in which all candidates' names were entered. All the while, however, Arizona Senator Barry Goldwater had been gaining votes in unopposed primary contests and with state organizations. When he defeated Rockefeller June 2 in the California primary, his nomination was all but assured.

Pennsylvania Governor William Scranton declared himself a candidate on June 12 and other moderate Republicans rallied behind him. But former President Dwight Eisenhower refused to take sides, and the Republican Convention in San Francisco July 13-16 nominated Goldwater on the first ballot. The nominee chose National Chairman William Miller, a U. S. Representative from New York, as his running mate. In his acceptance speech, Senator Goldwater said: "Extremism in the defense of liberty is no vice . . . moderation in the pursuit of justice is no virtue."

The Democrats met a month later, August 24-27, in Atlantic City. Since they had no significant primaries, their most important pre-convention activity was President Lyndon Johnson's announcement, on July 30, that he would not recommend a member of the Cabinet as a vice-presidential nominee.

When the convention opened, its delegates and the television audience were still waiting the President's decision. While the suspense mounted, the convention saw a memorial film honoring the 1960 nominee and gave a roaring tribute to his brother Robert. Then President Johnson flew to Atlantic City and himself nominated Senator Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota.

Major issues of the campaign included racial violence resulting from civil rights pressures, prudence in the conduct of foreign affairs, Medicare, the possibility of continuing prosperity, and the ethics of the Johnson administration. Senator Goldwater contended that he offered "a choice". President Johnson promised to lead the country toward achievement of the "Great Society".

During the campaign both Goldwater and Humphrey visited the University of Toledo field house. Then-Vice-President Johnson had spoken at the Lucas County Recreation Center several years earlier.

On Monday, November 2, the DeVilbiss student body voted in a mock election. The result was as good a prediction as most other polls: overwhelmingly Johnson. The next day the Democrat ticket received 42,676,220 votes; the Republican candidates, 26,860,314. The electoral vote was 486-52. Ohio went for Johnson by more than a million votes, and in Lucas County the score was 128,545—58,593.

Later that month, on November 22, many DeVilbiss students stopped and remembered where they had been and what they had thought one year earlier, when President John F. Kennedy was assassinated.

On January 20, 1965, as DeVilbiss celebrated the end of exams, Lyndon Baines Johnson was inaugurated as President of the United States.

ACTIVITIES

Chuck Horowitz, our Student Council President, calls the meeting to order.

This year's Student Council provided DeVilbiss students with many new and different activities along with the annual events. Everyone will remember the Homecoming parade, which consisted of about forty-five vehicles, including floats made by various clubs. Traveling to the stadium from Westgate, TADS rated a police escort. This was also the day of the second annual Interclub Carnival, which brought in a total of $350.

Part of the profits from the Carnival and 20% of the bookstore's gains went to the American Field Service program. Also, postcards with an aerial view of DeVilbiss were sold by Student Council representatives for this purpose. Many DeVilbiss students helped reach the $750 goal necessary for a future exchange student.

Under the direction of Student Council, the magazine drive again proved successful. The Awards Commission distributed stuffed tigers, wobbly-headed football players, and other prizes to deserving salesmen. A rally was handled by the Assemblies Commission, while the Finance Commission took care of the money collection.

Club day, elections, intramurals — Student Council plays an important part in these and many other DeVilbiss activities.

Terry Ryan looks over applications to the Welfare Commission.

Studying the financial situation of Student Council is Bill Treuhaff, Finance Commissioner.

Clerk-of-the-Board, Sue Dodd, types up the minutes from the latest meeting.

Randy Wertz reports on the activities of the Senior Class.

Linda Ferguson holds a position as Prism editor.

As editor of the Pot O' Gold, Caren Shore serves on Student Council.

AFS REPRESENTATIVE

Trixie Bennett arrived in San Francisco on July 24, 1964, with about 45 other American Field Service exchange students from New Zealand. After orientation classes, it was off across the country by bus with 35 other students who were exchangees to the Toledo area.

The goal of each AFS student is to create an understanding between his native land and the country he visits. To achieve this understanding, Trixie showed slides and gave speeches to groups all over the city.

Late in February, Trixie and Kathy Foster attended an AFS convention in Findlay, Ohio, with about 30 other area AFS students and their hosts.

As a true DeVilbiss student, Trixie has been busy in school activities. She participated in DeViltries, Dramatic Players, and I-Da-Ka.

In July, Trixie will end her stay in America with a three-week cross-country tour. The highlight of this trip will come when all the AFS students in this country meet in Washington, D.C., and have a conference with President Johnson.

At a DeVilbiss Student Council meeting, representatives listen while commissioners give their reports.

TASC REPRESENTATIVE

The annual Area Student Council Dance, "A Touch of Gold," was held at the Lucas County Recreation Center on February 7, 1965. The students of DeVilbiss elected Diane Robinson to represent them at this affair. A tea at Anderson's Heritage restaurant took place a few days before the dance. Here, the judges interviewed all twenty-five contestants from area schools to determine their poise, personality, and beauty. Each representative was escorted to the tea by the Student Council President from her respective school.

Assisting Miss Wannemacher in the library are Janice Twigg, Kathy Gilbert, and Marsha Mossing.

As hosts to the new members at their induction in the fall, they organized and ushered the inductees into the auditorium. Mrs. Lenore Berger, as a representative of the adult chapter of the American Field Service, introduced Miss Trixie Bennett, our foreign exchange student from Waipukurau, New Zealand. Then Trixie presented principal Mr. Irvin Conrad with a pictorial history of New Zealand. The old and new members, their parents, and invited classes of the school were addressed by Mr. David Rittenhouse. This prominent member of the Board of Education gave a very interesting speech. The new members and their families were then treated to a tea which the old members had prepared.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The Quill and Scroll National Journalistic Society for High School Journalists is the name given to the nationwide organization whose purpose is to further journalistic aspirants in their high school years. At DeVilbiss this group is an honorary society for the outstanding members of the staffs of the school's publications.

As a member of a national organization, each person received a monthly magazine that covered happenings of publication staffs all over the country.

POT O'

The Pot O' Gold staff has been working since last summer to compile the book you now hold in your hands. They have tried to find different ways to create this yearbook to make it something that every DeVilbiss student will be proud to own.

Many changes have been instituted this year: the larger size of the annual; the expanded number of pages; and, third and most important, the content of the book—the pictures, the copy, and the hundreds of original page layouts.

Putting a yearbook together is no easy matter. The hours of work on the part of every one of the twenty-two staff members—the editors, the photographers, the business staff—were hours spent and enjoyed by all those involved.

Each year at Columbia University, New York, the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Conference judges and rates yearbook entries from all over the country. Six Pot O' Gold staff members were delegates to this conference where they learned that our 1964 yearbook had received a first place rating in its category.

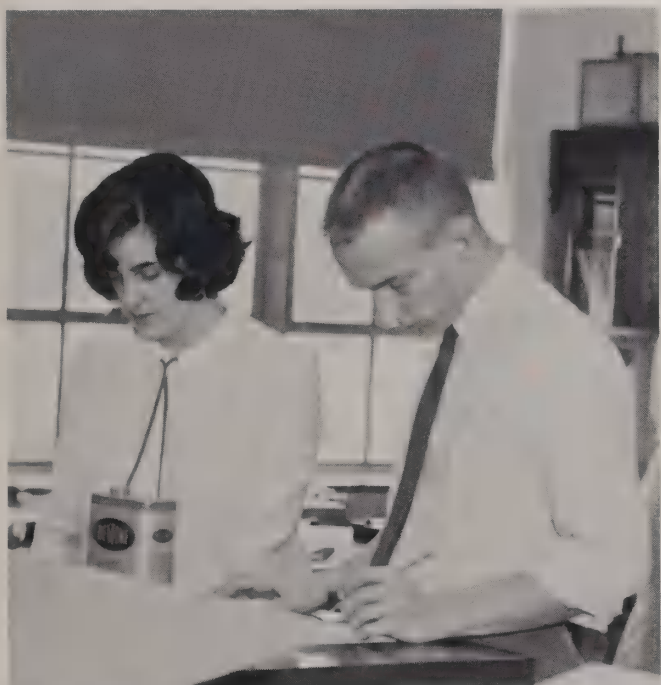

The photography staff and Photography Editor admire their handiwork. Randy Auslander; Chris Clowery; Jenny Metcalf, Photography Editor; Rich Sweeny; Tim Long; and Steve Nathanson comprise this part of the Pot O' Gold staff.

THE PRISM REPORTS SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

Each of the twelve issues of the Prism is planned under the direction of the editors, who assign copy to be written. After galley proofs return from the printer, a dummy is prepared in Publications class. Wednesday morning, ten days after the original material has been submitted, 1400 Tads enjoy the product of the Prism staff's work. Following the distribution, the staff discusses the pros and cons of that issue, before plunging into the process of preparing the next edition.

Many of the stories and articles we read in the Prism are written by Miss Bloom's English V-J class. This class, an innovation, combines training in journalistic writing with the regular junior English course.

The first page of the Prism usually covers special events, while the second page includes editorials, letters from students, and feature stories. Club news and classroom articles comprise the third page. The fourth page is devoted to sports.

The money gained from the $1.75 subscriptions, added to the income from advertising, is not sufficient to cover the cost of publishing the newspaper. This year, receipts from a special feature movie, "Hollywood or Bust," augmented the funds.

A new feature of the Prism has been the switch from newsprint to glossy paper. Also, a literary supplement, featuring creative writing submitted by any interested students, was included with the March 24 issue.

Page editors Louise Lewand and Carol Lepold go over the latest edition of the Prism while Editor-in-chief Linda Ferguson reads a galley dummy.

The faculty advisers of the Prism guide the staff's progress to better journalistic accomplishments. Mr. John Campbell heads the business staff, while Miss Rose Bloom leads the literary staff.

On Wednesday Prism days, the circulation staff must distribute the papers to all 1400 subscribers. Pictured here are Vicki Kronfield and Circulation Manager Lennie Liebes.

Bringing the news of the school to the students is the job of every good reporter. Helen Sanecki and Kathy Sommers interview Mr. Paul Ross about the new language labs.

MUSIC – THE ORCHESTRA

Mr. Jack Perrine serves as director of the DeVilbiss orchestra.

Under the direction of Mr. Jack Perrine, the DeVilbiss orchestra has participated in many varied musical activities. During the year they presented several concerts. In the fall, they played for the parents of the members of the orchestra. They collaborated with the band to present the annual Winter Concert held in the DeVilbiss auditorium. During the holiday season, the orchestra held two exchange concerts with Start. The DeVilbiss students were treated to a concert by the Start orchestra, and the Start students heard a fine presentation by our own orchestra.

Some of the members competed in a district contest at Bowling Green. In this competition, which was sponsored by the Ohio Music Education Association, two of the string quartets were awarded "one" ratings.

A large number of our musicians are in the all-city orchestra. One of them, Kathy Foster, served as the student director of the DeVilbiss orchestra. The orchestra will play for the graduation exercises at the University of Toledo. They also will play for the record which the A Cappella Choir is making plans to cut.

This year's DeVilbiss A Cappella Choir made great improvements in all phases of singing. The season started in November with a joint Waite-Libbey-DeVilbiss concert which featured soloists from New York under the management of the "American Youth Performs" organization. The annual Christmas program for DeVilbiss students was attended and enjoyed by over eight hundred Tads. The Choir then held its annual candy sale, from which they raised $600. Other activities this year in which the fifty-four members of the A Cappella Choir participated were the annual All-City High School Choral Festival at the Peristyle, a special program for the West Toledo Exchange Club, and the Spring Concert in May. In addition to these, the Choir blended its voices to the Baccalaureate exercises for seniors on June 6.

The Choir plans to cut a 12-inch long-playing record with the DeVilbiss orchestra. Serving as officers this year for the Choir were Don Standish, President; Milo Miller, Vice President; Barbara Swindle, Secretary-Treasurer; and Tom Miller, Pianist.

Our musicians, who start rehearsing two weeks before school starts to get ready for the football season, marched at all of the football games, starting at Rogers High School and closing the season by journeying to Cuyahoga Falls on November 13, 1964.

In conjunction with the orchestra, the band gave a mid-winter concert and a spring concert for DeVilbiss students.

Each year, the band enters contests sponsored by the Ohio Music Education Association. At the last contest in which it competed, at Bowling Green, they received a "superior" rating which enabled them to enter the state finals at Mansfield, Ohio. At this time they received a rating of "Excellent."

DEVILTRIES PRESENTS

"FOR WHOM THE POLL TOLLS"

As in the past, the 1965 student-directed, student-written Deviltries made use of the talents of several hundred students from all four classes and proved to be the best all-student show in Toledo.

The plot this year centered around a political campaign and election. When our story opened, we found the leaders of the Preservative Party board at work trying to find a candidate to run for President. Their choice was the small and meek Jasper J. MacDonald. Meanwhile, the incumbent, Rockland Peabody Hotkiss, had been unanimously re-nominated by the delegates at the Bountiful Party convention.

Both candidates hit the campaign trail—Jasper, honest and serious; Rockie, full of fun and frolic. The whole MacDonald family was behind "ol' dad" from Montana to Rhode Island, but Rockie's charm seemed to pull more votes. On election eve, it was off to Alaska and some last minute "grass rooting" by both nominees.

Election day got nationwide coverage via TCAVAC computers and two very capable reporters. All through the day spasmodic blocks of votes came in for Jasper J., but everyone was confident that Rockland would win by a landslide.

Suddenly, with a puff of smoke the computer blew up when it learned that the West Coast had placed Jasper J. MacDonald at the head of the country.

All ended well, of course, when everyone realized that they belong first to the Brotherhood of Man and second to a political party.

Members of the 1965 Deviltries steering committee were: BACK ROW: Jack Sinkey, Programs; Jerry Ollier, Sets and Properties; Dick Taylor, Programs; Mr. Harold Feltnier, Faculty Adviser; Lennie Liebes, Pit Band; Jim Johnston, Scenery; Norm Earley, Junior Assistant; Beth Conrad, Junior Assistant; George Alspach, Stage Crew. "GUYS AND DOLLS" IS A MUSICAL SUCCESS

This year the junior and senior classes successfully combined their talents and efforts to produce DeVilbiss's first musical comedy, "Guys and Dolls". With the help of countless students serving on committees, the over one

HOMEcoming

The festivities of DeVilbiss Homecoming took place on October 24, 1964. It began with a gala parade of floats and vehicles representing many DeVilbiss organizations. When this procession reached Page Stadium, it added to the color of the Inter-Club Carnival.

At 2 o'clock the Tiger football team engaged in its first city-league game with Start High School. They soundly trounced the Spartans.

Half-time activities were highlighted by the crowning of our student-selected court and queen. These were Patsy Cranmer, Nancy Comer, Diane Robinson, Sally Rittenhouse, and Carole Rezabek.

Patsy was a very active student at DeVilbiss. As a freshman, she was an attendant to the Night Relays Queen. In her sophomore year she was a lightweight cheerleader. She was an Usherette in both her junior and senior years, and as a senior she held the position of head Usherette on the Deviltries steering committee. Patsy also belonged to Pay-a-el-sa, Thaliens, and then Sorelles during her high school years.

1964-65

was a year of change and progress for DeVilbiss. Established traditions combined with new projects and procedures to distinguish this year at DeVilbiss.

The remodeling of our classrooms and halls was completed over the summer, though some outside work remained to be done. In early fall, an occasional stray workman might suddenly appear outside a second-story window. The hundreds of gallons of paint added a lighter, newer look to our 34-year-old building.

The biggest "first" at DeVilbiss this year was having Miss Trixie Bennett of New Zealand join the student body.

As usual, the activity of the school year began with the magazine drive. TADS brought in a total of $12,388 in subscriptions a decrease from the 1963 total.

Homecoming, October 24, was a success in all respects. The weather was good, the Tigers won the football game, the Inter-Club carnival raised $350, and the Homecoming dance was well supported.

In November, the Junior and Senior classes produced a Broadway musical in place of the usual dramatic play. "Guys and Dolls" proved so successful that plans are now underway for another musical for 1965.

As in years before, Christmas windows and the Christmas tree in the front hall decorated our building in December. But this year the Chinese class gave us some unique decorations. They made four signs which wished everyone passing our building a "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year"—in Chinese!

Two words describe Christmas vacation—welcome and short. Although vacation lasted only a week and a half, it gave most of the students and faculty time to get caught up and rested enough to face semester exams in January.

The winter was generally a mild one, but more than once it gave us a sample of real winter weather, with two ice storms and one large snowfall. The first of the two ice storms proved fatal to one of the long-standing trees in front of our building. The snowfall, the heaviest in years, gave all Toledo students an unscheduled vacation on February 26.

Late in February the absence of Mr. Sharpe, due to a back injury, brought about a change in announcement procedure. Only those announcements concerning the entire student body were read over the P. A. System. All other announcements were mimeographed and sent to the homerooms. This was not the only noticeable change which occurred because of Mr. Sharpe's absence, for a man who does so many jobs and who supervises so many activities is not easily done without.

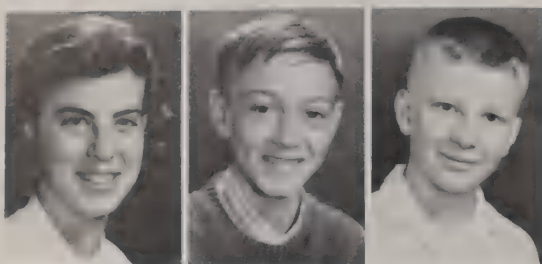

March 12 was the date of the varsity-faculty basketball game, which helped to raise money for the family of Mr. James Krupp. The Prism published an issue featuring a literary page of student contributions. And at the end of the month, with many students from all the classes working together, Deviltries of '65 was a laudable production.

Spring vacation came late, during the last half of April. The week following the holidays was DeVilbiss Week, and its award days which ended with our invitational Night Relays.

May was the end of a first year at DeVilbiss; or a second, or a third; or the many activities and preparations leading to June 9, and commencement exercises at the University of Toledo Field House.

Freshmen boys have spent Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays in chorus under the direction of J. P. Zaugg. This group gave a fine performance in the Spring Concert.

As the freshman is about to enter DeVilbiss, he can only expect the unknown. He cannot foresee what lies ahead. During his first few days, he is easily recognized by his hurried pace and distraught expression while trying to find classes and hoping not to get lost. Gradually, he becomes acquainted with members of the faculty and student body. He begins to learn about DeVilbiss as his new world unfolds before him.

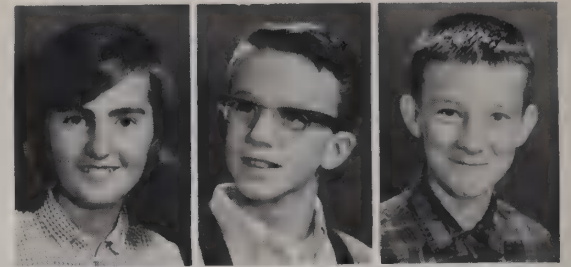

There are a limited number of activities in which this freshman may participate, but still he is kept busy. He realizes that he must learn to work and do well scholastically so that in the following years he will be able to meet responsibility. This is the best way to begin life at DeVilbiss.

The Class of 1968 has shown the makings of real Tigers as they have been active in school events and spirited at sporting events. We rightly expect a great deal from this class, and are certain that our expectations will be fulfilled.

One of the songs heard during 1964-65,
from the musical play "The Fantasticks", began

"Try to remember the kind of September
When life was slow and oh! so mellow,
Try to remember the kind of September
When grass was green and grain was yellow . . .

Try to remember when life was so tender
That no one wept except the willow,
Try to remember when life was so tender
That dreams were kept beside your pillow . . ."

What you remember, what dates you circle on the calendar, will be special for you. You will have personal memories, which you or your friends can add to those already recorded here. Perhaps, deep in December, this book (one of the things we'll remember) will recall for you what it was like to be a student at DeVilbiss High School during

1964-1965

Creating New Products and Technology for Tomorrow

Our highly creative research and development people can't get their minds off tomorrow.

And that's all to the good.

For...in tomorrow's world, products and technology as yet unborn will be needed to keep things humming. And from the thinking, the probing, the testing our people in research and development are doing today, will come new products and technology to satisfy tomorrow's needs.

Their work encompasses many fields, many disciplines. Some you should know about are weighing equipment and systems, data processing, materials handling, instrumentation and machinery for restaurant kitchens and food stores.

The assignments are challenging. And the opportunities for talented people...in all areas of Toledo Scale...are virtually unlimited.

Basketball is an exacting game

It requires practice, practice and more practice. Ask any coach. There is no better way to get this practice than by installing a Marleau basketball goal in your backyard. You can buy individual backboards, baskets, poles, wood or steel. We also install.

Libbey's famous
"Safedge" Guarantee

...first made in 1924

In 1924 Libbey—a division of Owens-Illinois—perfected a unique fire process for safeguarding the rims of fine glassware.

They called this glassware "Safedge"—and to prove the process was as good as claimed, they backed it with the most dramatic guarantee in glass history:

"If any 'Safedge' glass becomes chipped on the rim, from any cause whatsoever, it will be replaced free of cost." This offer, of course, still stands.

Today, Libbey "Everyday Crystal" with the famous "Safedge" guarantee graces even the finest tables, yet sells at low prices.

LIBBEY·OWENS·FORD

a Great Name in Glass

TOLEDO 2, OHIO

What a wonderful Open World

Have you noticed schools like this on your travels? Probably, because new buildings are springing up everywhere. They are beautiful and functional structures with large glass areas to create an "open-world" atmosphere to eliminate the feeling of being boxed in.

Wherever you live, work, shop or travel, you'll find L·O·F Glass making it more enjoyable. In homes, motels, schools and stores. In offices and factories. In hospitals and churches. In cars, buses, trains and planes.

There's an L·O·F Glass that insulates windows. It's called Thermopane® insulating glass. Another subdues sun heat and glare. L·O·F Glass that makes automobiles safer. L·O·F Glass to do a thousand things.

And when anyone needs glass, there's an authority on it nearby—your local independent L·O·F Glass Distributor or Dealer. His name is in the telephone book Yellow Pages under "Glass". Call him.

Laboratories, shops and studyrooms are separated from twin classroom buildings by a broad, central court, Ithaca Senior High School, Ithaca, N.Y. Architects: Perkins & Will, White Plains, N.Y.

Mickey - (Days)

Really, I don't know where to start. I guess the best place is when we started, doubling when you & Mary were ~~doubling~~ ^{dating}. We really did have fun, you must admit. Mickey you really are a wonderful guy and I really respect you. Remember, just to be honest ^(about girls) and all the happiness of the world will be yours. Mickey, if this summer you don't do your little duties, you will "get it". Understand -

It really has been a pleasure knowing you & I hope our friendship does not end with out years at D.H.D. I think ^{January} that you are great!
Best of luck! s m t w t f s
Carolyn Potter

Mays,

It's been a blast with all of the fellows this year and you been right in there with all of the rest of us. Hope Aline doesn't give ya hell on the exam. Have fun this summer and I'll see ya next fall at T.V.

Pete the Booger

Dick,

It's been nice meeting you this year. Mrs Smith went faster with you than. Good luck in the future.

Dick,
It's been a real joy knowing you and watching the telephone tricks you play on Mrs. Marx.
Good luck and I hope to see you again.
Don't play too many jokes on your teachers in college.
